

Principal, Notre Dame High School, Belmont, California

The Board of Directors at Notre Dame High School, a Catholic independent school sponsored by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur and serving 700 young women in grades 9 through 12, invites candidates who are practicing Roman Catholics to apply for the position of Principal. The school has inaugurated the President/Principal model of administration.

The Principal is the Chief Operating Officer and, as such, has the general charge of the day to day operation of the school. The Principal reports to the President who is responsible to the Board of Directors. The ideal candidate will have a strong record of accomplishment as both an enthusiastic educator and an academic leader with a belief in the value of single-gender education. Discover more about the school at <http://www.ndhsb.org/>.

Position qualifications include an advanced degree, five years of successful educational experience in teaching and in Catholic school administration, collaborative leadership style, and superior communication and interpersonal skills.
