

Coordinator for Social Justice, Diocese of Oakland

The Coordinator for Social Justice organizes and supports the efforts in the diocese to challenge prophetically, through the wisdom of the Church, the personal and structural injustices which dehumanize us. This position supports the development and work of parish and diocesan social justice ministry. The coordinator provides educational, pastoral, spiritual and advocacy resources and collaborates and networks with parishes, diocesan departments, and religious and secular organizations to provide training, ongoing formation, direct services, and referrals.
